

DOORS OPEN DENVER 2018

ARTS + CULTURE ACTIVITIES

PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH REDLINE CONTEMPORARY ART CENTER

WITH SUPPORT FROM THE BONFILS-STANTON FOUNDATION

Five Points Fortitude

September 22 + 23, 2018
Five Points neighborhood
denverarchitecture.org

This year's Bonfils-Stanton Foundation supported Arts + Culture Activities will be concentrated in the Five Points neighborhood. Join us for inside looks at some of Five Points' historic buildings while taking in enriching cultural experiences. Enjoy live Jazz performances, dance performances by Cleo Parker Robinson Dance and spoken word and theater performances by the Black Actors Guild at the iconic Rossonian. Share your architecture stories with Sam Pike at the Blair-Caldwell African American Research Library. Get a taste of some of Five Points' best restaurants at the old Puritan Pie Factory. Finally, create your own mosaic of stamps designed by Imin Yeh and local artists by visiting all the activities.

Jazz

AT THE ROSSONIAN

September 22, 2018

12p.m. – The Gayle Leali Jazz & Blues Quartet
2p.m. – Lorraine Ellis and her Trio

September 23, 2018

12p.m. – Spherio
2p.m. – Joe Smith and The Spicy Pickles

Rossonian, 2650 Welton St.

Join us for Jazz performances at the historic Rossonian Hotel, our Five Points neighborhood anchor site and a neighborhood jewel that has hosted some of Jazz's greatest artists.

Cleo Parker Robinson Dance

AT THE ROSSONIAN

September 22 + 23, 2018

11a.m. and 1p.m.

Rossonian, 2650 Welton St.

Enjoy dance performances celebrating the Five Points neighborhood's unique African American history and culture by one of Denver's premier dance companies.

Taste of Five Points

September 22, 2018

10a.m.-2p.m.

Whittier Café
Rosenberg's Bagels & Delicatessen
Genna Rae's Wings and More
The Humble Pie Store

September 23, 2018

10a.m.-2p.m.

The Rolling Pin Bakeshop
Purple Door Coffee
Curtis Park Delicatessen
Welton Street Café

Historic Puritan Pie Factory (Rocky Mountain Land Library), 2612 Champa St.

Enjoy $5 plates from neighborhood restaurants and bakeries, showcasing Five Points' unique culinary heritage while perusing the Rocky Mountain Land Library, formerly the home of the Puritan Pie Factory.

Black Actors Guild Historical Reenactments

AT THE ROSSONIAN

September 22 + 23, 2018

11:30a.m. and 1:30p.m.

Rossonian, 2650 Welton St.

Immerse yourself in the neighborhood's history and meet some of the personalities from Five Points' cast of characters with the Black Actors Guild.

If These Walls Could Talk:

ARCHITECTURE STORIES WITH SAM PIKE

September 22, 2018

10a.m.-4p.m.

Blair-Caldwell African American Research Library, 2401 Welton St.

What's your favorite building in Five Points? Which building holds within its walls an unforgettable story? Which building needs its story told before it is forgotten? These are some of the questions Sam Pike is asking participants to talk about at his Blair-Caldwell Library story booth. Help Sam give a voice to the buildings of the neighborhood by telling him your most memorable experiences with Five Points' architecture.

Points of Interest

WITH IMIN YEH

September 22 + 23, 2018

Times vary by site and activity (see above)

Rossonian, Historic Puritan Pie Factory, and Blair-Caldwell African American Research Library

Points of Interest is an art and architecture-focused scavenger hunt! Using your map, visit all our Arts + Culture Activities and sites and receive unique stamps at each one designed by Imin Yeh and local Denver artists.

Arts + Culture Committee

Pauline Herrera Serianni, Executive Director,
Denver Architecture Foundation

Louise Martorano, Executive Director,
RedLine

Sarah Gott, Director of Education,
Denver Architecture Foundation

Rudi Cerri, Public Art Administrator,
Denver Arts & Venues

Sonia Rae, Director of Audience &
Community Engagement,
Clifford Still Museum

Sam Pike

Spherio - Image: Spherio, July 2015, by Tim Nelson. Courtesy of Spherio.

Whittier Café - Image: Courtesy of Whittier Café.

Cleo Parker - Image: From the work Rain Dance, photo by Jerry Mettelus. Courtesy of cleoparkerdance.org.

BONFILS
STANTON
FOUNDATION

DOORS
OPEN
DENVER
PRESENTED BY
DENVER ARCHITECTURE FOUNDATION

DENVER
ARCHITECTURE
FOUNDATION