HOW TO NAVIGATE DOORS OPEN DENVER

Welcome to Doors Open Denver 2018! The following are ways in which you can participate in this year's event.

JOIN US FOR AN INSIDER TOUR

Insider Tours provide opportunities to learn from experts about structures and locales significant to Denver's history, development, design and future.

These tours are lead by architects, landscape architects, historians and urban enthusiasts who have special knowledge of Denver's neighborhoods and buildings. Only $10! To buy tickets, visit denverarchitecture.org.

VISIT OUR OPEN SITES

Open sites are buildings that have opened their doors to the public and are free to explore. There are over 60 open sites this year at Doors Open Denver. A complete list of sites, hours and other basic info can be found on this page and the next. Complete info can be found at denverarchitecture.org.

PARTICIPATE IN FREE, ENGAGING ARTS ACTIVITIES

Thanks to the generous support of the Bonfils-Stanton Foundation, this year Doors Open Denver will offer six enriching arts events at several open sites in the Five Points neighborhood. Visit them all for your chance at winning a very special prize – see complete details on Page 7.

Y/OUR DENVER PHOTO CONTEST

The Denver Architecture Foundation is excited to partner with the Colorado Photographic Arts Center (CPAC) to bring you the Doors Open Denver 2018 Photography Competition, Y/OUR DENVER. This is your opportunity to find and photograph your favorite areas of Denver and enter your images into a juried competition. This call is looking for all forms of architectural imagery: black & white and color, exterior, interior and detail images are welcome from photographers of all skill levels. Thirty images will be showcased on the DAF and CPAC websites for this online exhibition.

Entry deadline: October 1, 2018. Check out the complete call, including prizes, at denverarchitecture.org.

TRANSPORTATION

There's so much to see and do during Doors Open Denver weekend, we strongly suggest you plan ahead – pick your route and pick your method of transportation! As always, the Denver Architecture Foundation encourages walking, biking, ridesharing and using public transportation.

We'll see you September 22 + 23!
